

FOOD & PHARMA PACKAGING – SAFETY QUALITY MANAGEMENT

Symposium: 08 – 09 May, 2019

Programme Oriented to concept of Quality Management with emphasis on Regulations, Quantification of properties and their relevance and interpretation, Migration – Extractability – Leachability, Toxicity Compliance and application of quantified data meeting regulatory measures and guidance. All these would refer to not only packaging materials and forms but also ancillaries such as adhesives and inks.

The speakers will be from overseas and industry experts from India besides SIES SOP/PTC. The deliberations would be supported by laboratory demonstrations and B to B meeting with industry panel who will have table display of their facilities.

PROPOSED COVERAGE:

- Packaging Quality Management – A review.
- Risk Management – A matrix approach.
- Regulatory concepts – Quantifiable data and relevance.
- Compliance Requirements – Domestic and International.
- Relevance and role of quality related to primary packaging media, and ancillaries VIZ printing inks, packaging adhesives, and labels.
- Concept of material – machinery integration – specially related to material performance on the packaging system.
- Relevance of tests, test methodology and equipment standards.
(a) Physical/Mechanical and (b) Barrier properties
- A) Visits to display facilities.
B) Equipments/Test Demonstration, results/analysis and interpretation.

The registration is by invitation. Registration/Nomination for attached. The fee payable for second or more delegate from the same company is Rs. 750/- plus GST 18% per delegate.

For Details, Contact:

Mr. P.V. Narayanan, Chairman / Mrs. Radha. P
Email: narayananp@sies.edu.in / Email: sopadmin@sies.edu.in
